

ADMINISTRATIVE

~~INTERNAL USE ONLY~~

CIA 2-06.6

ARTHUR S. FLEMMING AWARDS NOMINEE FOR 1964

Mr. Paul M. Chretien, Assistant to the Director, was nominated by the Agency as its candidate for the Arthur S. Flemming Award sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Washington, D. C.

These awards are granted to young men in Federal service in recognition of their outstanding accomplishments or distinctive work in scientific and administrative fields.

In nominating Mr. Chretien, the Deputy Director, Lieutenant General Marshall S. Carter, stated:

"Mr. Chretien has made outstanding contributions to the effectiveness of the mission of the Central Intelligence Agency and to the intelligence efforts of the United States. We feel that his meritorious work and his achievements in developing better understanding of intelligence functions are significant contributions to the efficiency and prestige of the public service."

ADMINISTRATIVE

~~INTERNAL USE ONLY~~